

Summit Machine, Inc. is the sole owner of the personal information collected on this site. We will not sell or rent this information. We collect personal data, such as names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, and credit card information during the order process for the purpose of accurately billing and shipping our customer's orders. When necessary, this information is provided to shipping companies and product suppliers.

Periodically, we may send notices to our customers, usually via email, announcing website upgrades, updates, new product information, sales, special offers, or other similar news.

IP addresses are used to administer our web site. Cookies are used to create and maintain customer shopping carts and personalize the site. Browsers set to reject cookies will still access our site, but will not function well with our online store.

Summit Machine, Inc. is secured using Secure Socket Layer encryption during online purchases. When sensitive information (such as a credit card number) is sent to us via our order form, that information is encrypted and protected with SSL, the current industry-standard encryption protocol. Though we have taken measures to secure data, we will not be held liable for any theft or misuses of credit card or personal information.

Our site contains links to other web sites. Summit Machine, Inc. is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such sites.

Collected information will be provided when required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary in order to conform with law.

Summit Machine, Inc. reserves the right to change this policy at any time without notice.
